Robert VERBELEN and Heinz SIEGERT

Reference: PULL-3063, 18 January 1956 NR

1. Headquarters files contain the following information on Robert VERBELEN in addition to that contained in PROB-2549, dated 25 January 1956, and EGQA-73303, dated 19 January 1956:

SHAEF Cards confirm that Robert VERBELEN was staff leader of DE VIAG and founder of the Sicherheitskorps in Belgium. He is reported to have been responsible for killing many Belgians and Jews in Brussels. He formed a Flemish Sturmbrigade in Belgium. After the Allied invasion he fled to Germany but continued to maintain contact with agents in Limburg. His last residence was reported in November 1944 as Victoria Louizen Platz, Berlin.

2. There are no current traces on Heinrich or Heinz SIEGERT in Headquarters files. MAVA-10598, dated 20 February 1952, lists Heinz SIEGERT, born 19 March 1924, as a resident at Vienna V, Gassergasse 24-26/II/12 and employed by the American intelligence service. EAVA-2343, dated 1 April 1953, reported SIEGERT as being investigated by ODOPAL in 1952 in regard to his intelligence activities.
